

Houston Inventions

Howard R. Hughes, Sr. invented a new type of drill bit to make drilling for oil easier.
George Ballas invented the Weed Eater to help people trim their grass.

If you could invent something to help people living in Houston, what would it be?

How would it work?

What would it do?

What would you call it?

Draw a picture of your invention on the back of this page.